"We're redefining this aging stuff," says Joan.

Some of Joan's popular speech and workshop topics:

The 5 Biggest Myths about Sex and Aging. Joan shatters the myths and shares the most common questions that Boomers, seniors, and elders ask her. Yes, she'll answer those questions, too -- in the candid, upbeat manner that led the media to dub her "senior sexpert." (They also called her a "wrinkly sex kitten," but you be the judge of that!)

Talking Out Loud about Senior Sex. Joan Price challenges the stereotypes about senior sex in this lively, upbeat, entertaining talk. Joan shares stories of the joys and challenges, based on her own experience and interviews with hundreds of boomers and elders. Joan discusses this provocative, spicy topic with respect and dignity as well as plenty of humor.

Women's Workshop: Sex after Sixty. Yes, sex after sixty has its challenges, but it can also be sizzling and satisfying. We'll face the challenges and celebrate the joys of older-age sexuality, sharing experiences and learning from each other in a spirit of candor, acceptance, creativity, and humor. Take home new tools, techniques, and attitudes that help women over sixty experience hot, joyful sex -- with or without a partner.

Ask Me, I'll Tell You: Women and Men Talk about Sex & Aging. We're talking about senior sex—the challenges, the pleasures, and all the questions we didn't think we could ask out loud. What arouses us now, when the old ways aren't working like they used to? What do we wish we understood and could communicate better about our changing bodies, desires, and responses? How do we spice up our sexual repertoire? In this eye opening, interactive, mixed-gender workshop, you'll get to voice your questions and get answers. Joan guides the conversation and discovery, and offers tips for putting the zest back into later-life sexuality. For couples and singles, men and women.

How the Heck Do I Date at This Age? You're ready to connect for dating, sex, love, companionship – but dating as a senior feels awkward and downright weird. What are the guidelines? How do you navigate online dating and avoid the pitfalls that send potential dates running in the other direction? When do you bring up safer sex, your personal sexual issues, or sex at all? Whether you're widowed, divorced, or a longtime single, you'll find this interactive workshop illuminating and fun, and you'll get to find out how other single seniors meet and mate (or try to). All genders and orientations welcome; sense of humor helpful. Thirty million Americans age 55 and older are single, so welcome to the club with no rules!
